KENT CITY HIGH SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

KCHS Families,

Although the wonderful fall weather in Michigan may make it hard to believe, we are closing in on November! With the change on the calendar comes a change in the activities that KCHS students will be part of. Although I'm never excited for colder temperatures, I'm excited for what late fall and early winter will bring for KCHS. Read on for highlights and reminders for November. Go Eagles!

Mission, Vision, Values

This month we will highlight the Quality Interactions Value from the graphic. The Quality Interactions hexagon identifies honest communication as an important component of this value. In my experience, having honest communication is not always the easiest or most comfortable thing to do, but it often leads to the best possible outcome when the involved parties connect with each other.

GREAT Expectations

For November, we will highlight the expectation that students at KCHS will be Engaged. Engagement can look and sound like multiple different things in the different settings that students find themselves in while involved with school and school activities. Potentially the most important factor in determining the level and quality of engagement in any setting are the intentions that students bring with them. The intentions that we bring with us determine what we pay attention to and are displayed in our behavior.

IT'S A GREAT DAY TO BE AN EAGLE

GIVE And GET RESPECT
RESPONSIBLE And SAFE
ENGAGED
ACCEPTING
TRUSTWORTHY
