KENT CITY HIGH SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

KCHS Families,

It has been an outstanding start to the school year at KCHS. Homecoming went very smoothly and I was incredibly impressed with the spirit that our students showed. Participation in the dress-up days stands out to me. Not only did a large number of our students participate, but their “costumes” were marvelous. Read on for more highlights and reminders as we welcome October. Go Eagles!

National Merit Scholarship Commended Students

Kent City High School senior, Amy Sytsma, was presented with a Letter of Commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Amy is one of about 34,000 Commended Students throughout the nation. Commended Students placed among the top 50,000 students who entered the 2025 competition by taking the 2023 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

Congratulations, Amy!

Mission, Vision, Values

This month I want to highlight the Growth Mindset Value that is included in the graphic shown here. This video is one of many resources that help to explain what a “Growth Mindset” is and why it is so important for students. I especially appreciate that part of the value encourages students to take risks in their educational journey because it is through difficult tasks and challenges that we experience the most growth.

GREAT Expectations

For KCHS to realize our full potential, we need to teach students about being accepting. One way that I would like to encourage our students to do this is by showing support for all of the extracurricular activities that their peers participate in. We typically have great attendance in the student section for athletics, and that is wonderful. I would love to see the same kind of support for some of our less publicized activities, as well.

IT'S A GREAT DAY TO BE AN EAGLE
